

Know Your Ice

ACROSS

4. Large scale compression ruptures in an ice sheet
5. Clear ice
6. Vertical ice crystals exposed to rising temps
7. Ice containing lots of air bubbles
9. It sags dramatically underfoot when stepped on
12. Frozen puddle on thick ice

DOWN

1. Rotting vegetation creates these holes
2. White top layer made up of small pieces (1/8 inch)
3. Crack that forms on ice that is way too thin
4. Large areas of open water surrounded by ice
8. A thaw or rain creates these holes
10. Frozen slurry of ice and water
11. A giant rock near the surface creates these holes